If believing there is an eternal or everlasting death for your spirit-soul, then you can not believe scriptures related to eternal or everlasting life or covenant.
Since lives are lived in a body of some sort, that allows for the appearance of separation from God, allowing your free will to live in an everlasting or eternal death from life to life. A soul has that option. Even so, there will not be one soul lost as scriptures state.
As much as you want to believe and live in fear of an eternal or everlasting death, you certainly have that free will to think and believe it so.
